

Small Grants Programme

Deadlines 27 May and 27 November annually

Successful applicants November 2007 deadline:

Dr Ruth Andrew, University of Edinburgh, Queen's Research Institute, £9,868 awarded

Title: Adrenal Insufficiency in Cholestatic Liver Disease

Dr Alison Douglas, University of Edinburgh, School of Biomedical Sciences £9,600 awarded

Title: Stress threatens early pregnancy by altering prolactin signalling

Dr Jack Ham, University of Cardiff, £8,525 awarded

Title: Does adenosine modulate communication from osteoclasts to osteoblasts?

Dr Steven Morley, University of Edinburgh, Queen's Medical Centre, £9,000 awarded

Title: Investigating the putative roles of HRPE773 protein in the human reproductive system

Dr Claire Perks, University of Bristol, £10,000 awarded

Title: IGFBP-2: a novel endocrine metabolic counter-regulator via PTEN.

Prof Shanta Persaud, King's College London, £9,886 awarded

Title: Identifying INGAP signal transduction mechanisms in pancreatic b-cells

Dr Kirsty Smith, Imperial College London, £8,347 awarded

Title: The use of stereotaxic microinjection to study the role of hypothalamic kisspeptin in the regulation of puberty in juvenile female rats.