The benefits OF BELONGING

Being part of the Society for Endocrinology places you in a community dedicated to supporting you in your career and helping you to...

Get involved

at dedicated endocrine events locally, nationally and internationally. Discover the latest advances and get involved with developing best practice in your field.

Fund your future through a range of grants intended to support you through your career.

Demonstrate your value and get recognised. Share your work with an international audience at our annual SfE BES conference, present an interesting case study or lecture at the Endocrine Nurse Update, or apply for the annual Endocrine Nurse Award.

Nurse Membership

Join today and receive free online access to the Society's journals, access to the Endocrine Networks, reduced registration for all our events, and much more for just £62.

Are you a nursing student? Then you can join as a Student Member for just £10 and unlock access to the SfE BES Registration Grant!

WWW.ENDOCRINOLOGY.ORG/MEMBERSHIP

Each year the Society provides £450,000 in funding to its members

Find your voice

as the voice of endocrine nursing we campaign on the issues that matter to you. As a member, you can help us take your profession forward by getting involved in developing best practice, sharing knowledge worldwide, or even contributing towards endocrine nursing publications.

Get the help and guidance you need with access to leading learning resources, case reports, specialist endocrine publications and advisory documents produced specifically to assist endocrine nurses.

Step up your career with a dedicated masters-level module in Endocrine Nursing at Oxford Brookes University.

Discover opportunities to network and become part of an endocrine community dedicated to supporting each other across the globe: sharing advice, knowledge and best practice. Many endocrine nurses work in isolation but, as a member, support, resources and advice are never far away.

“Now if I have any queries I can just email the wider community of endocrine specialist nurses, who are always so willing to help.”
