The Society for ENDOCRINOLOGY

The Society for Endocrinology (SfE) is the UK home of endocrinology. We bring the global endocrine community together to share ideas and advance our discipline.

As a membership organisation, we support scientists, clinicians and nurses who work with hormones throughout their careers. We also work with the pharmaceutical industry and other medical organisations to help advance the treatment of endocrine conditions.

Our industry sponsors are an important part of our community. We can provide you with access to our diverse membership to help extend the reach of your products, and inform the development of new ones, to advance endocrine science, and improve human health.

Our training events enable delegates to learn about the latest developments in endocrinology, engage in debate and share best practice. We value contributions from our corporate partners at these events. This is why we would like to invite you to work with us as an event sponsor.

Benefits of exhibition and sponsorship
