Corporate Liaison remit

Approved February 2018, June 2019, December 2021, July 2022

Composition

Chair: The Chair is a member of the Society for Endocrinology elected via application and membership ballot.

The Chair is normally expected to have served on this committee beforehand to gain knowledge and expertise.

The Chair is, ex officio, a member of Council

Vacancies will be openly advertised to all Voting Members; if the number of applications exceeds the number of vacancies, an election is held within the membership. At the annual general meeting the name of the duly elected candidate is declared.

Deputy Chair: The Deputy Chair is nominated by the Corporate Liaison Committee and ratified by Council (normally a basic scientist, if the Chair is a clinician and vice versa).

Elected members: Up to 8 in total

Recruited via application and committee ballot to include:

- 4 Clinicians (Clinical, Nurse or Associate Professional members from Healthcare professions)
- 4 Basic Scientists

Ex officio members:

- SfE Clinical Committee Representative
- SfE Early Career Committee Representative
- SfE Nurse Committee Representative
- SfE Science Committee Representative

Co-opted members: Up to three Awardees on the Leadership and Development Awards programme

In addition, the Chair of the Committee may co-opt up to 3 additional Society Members by invitation only for a limited period and for specific projects only subject to Council approval. The Chair may invite additional stakeholders if and when additional external expertise is required subject to Council approval.

Quorum: Chair plus 4 elected members
Duration of service

Chair: 4 years. The first year of which shall be in a ‘Chair-elect’ capacity, during which they have full voting rights.

Deputy Chair: Co-terminal with period of office

Elected members: 4 years

Ex officio members: Co-terminal with period of office

Co-opted members: Duration of specific project (see above)

Reporting

The Corporate Liaison Committee reports to the Council of the Society for Endocrinology through the Chair of the Committee.

Remit

1. To serve as a forum for two-way communication and advice between the Society for Endocrinology and industry (for example, the latest industry developments and drugs pipeline, regulatory issues, therapeutic development, research funding and projects and other endocrinology related issues)

2. To ensure transparent and appropriate relationships with industry via appropriate governance structures

3. To support the Society with the development of its industry partnerships, with specialist input into Corporate Supporter packages, and identifying other sponsorship opportunities, as required

4. To proactively seek new industry sponsors, acting as an initial point of contact for these new relationships, as appropriate

5. To help develop projects and collaborations to benefit Society Members

6. To provide a conduit between industry and the Society’s Committees and Endocrine Networks, facilitating joint, mutually beneficial initiatives

7. To actively promote the importance of industry support and of mutually beneficial collaborations with the Society, to the wider membership and thus increase the levels of engagement

Secretariat

Society Development Manager
Partnerships Manager (as required)
Director of Membership Engagement (as required)
Chief Executive (as required)
Additional notes

- The Society is committed to equal opportunities and the promotion of diversity. The governance and business of this committee should follow the principles of the Society’s Diversity policy.

- Committee members should make every effort to attend all meetings/teleconferences. Attendance records will be kept and reviewed annually. Any committee member who does not attend any meetings in a year will be asked to step down, other than in exceptional circumstances.

- New committee members will be issued with a job description, remit of the committee together with the last minutes three sets of meeting. All Committee members need to be paid up members of the Society.

- All papers and minutes must be treated in strictest confidence.

- All committee members must act in the best interest of the Society. Any potential conflicts of interest should be declared at the start of the meeting or as they arise, and the member concerned should take no part in the discussion.

- Expenses cannot be claimed if a committee meeting is held during an SfE event if the Committee member is also attending the event.

- Ex officio members on this committee have full voting rights. Co-opted members shall not be entitled to vote.

- The Chair should not serve a second consecutive term of office, unless there are exceptional circumstances identified by Council.

- Wherever possible, retiring committee members should not stand for immediate re-election.

- Committee membership should represent key areas of interest and geographical spread; the application form encourages members in under-represented areas to apply.

- Vacancies are publicised to all Society members. If the number of applications exceeds the number of vacancies, a ballot is held within the committee.

- Committees should ensure they are meeting their remits and are monitoring effectiveness.

- Committees should define the skills they require from Committee members and strive for increased diversity to maximise effectiveness.

- Positive action should be used to recruit underrepresented groups into shortlists (e.g. geography, member type, type of institution, particular skills).
