

I have Diabetes Insipidus or Vasopressin Insufficiency

This condition should not be confused with Diabetes Mellitus

Symptoms: excessive thirst & urine output.

I don't secrete a hormone called ADH (Antidiuretic hormone) from my pituitary gland.

Treatment:

Desmopressin (DDAVP)

My usual dose is:

Patient's name:

Date of birth:

Cons Endocrinologist:

Hospital & Tel no:

Next of kin:

Tel:

Emergency situations: It is much safer to under treat my Diabetes Insipidus with replacement fluid as water intoxicification is very dangerous.